Navajo Nation Crownpoint Chapter House

Ya'at'eeh! We, the staff at Crownpoint Chapter welcome you to our site. This is the first phase of our website development and we will be adding more features and services very soon. We urge you to come back and visit us again very soon!

Written history of T'iis ts'ooz nideeshgiizh dates back to 1907. A man by the name of S.F. Stacher founded a school house. Much later, the first BIA School was established alone with a trading post around the same time. The Navajo people have maintained their culture and heritage, including continued practice of native religion, which still plays an important and powerful role in the day-to-day life of Navajos.

The Crownpoint Chapter conducts monthly meetings to keep residents informed; residents have a forum to express their opinions to their Navajo Nation Council Delegate or to decide on matters concerning their chapter.

Upcoming Chapter Meetings:

- Chapter Planning Meeting - Tues., September 5, 2006 at 9:00 a.m.
- Chapter Meeting - Sunday, September 17, 2006 at 1:00 noon
- Community Land Use Plng Meeting -TBA
- Community Land Use Meeting - TBA

The Chapter was certified in 1965. The Crownpoint community is located in the Northwestern region of New Mexico and in the mid-southern part of the "Checkerboard" area. It is located approximately 125 miles northwest of Albuquerque, New Mexico. New Mexico State VietNam Veterans Memorial Highway 371 goes through Crownpoint, connecting with Farmington (82 miles to the north) and with Thoreau, New Mexico (24 miles to the south). The completed highway has added traffic volume by 125% since 1980.
